1787.5

4

Woman, born & reared in South Alabama, My forebears originally coming here from Virginia & Maryland. I am so anxious that some day we may have the privilege of knowing you & having you in our Home. Your Grandson, my husband's father, was one of the loveliest gentlemen I ever knew. I fell in love with him as well as his son and name-sake. If our tires & gasoline are given us again freely, we plan to visit your section of the country, and learn to know you. We are wondering if you have completed your family record. If we could in any-way acquire a copy of it, Please know that we would be anxious to stand the expense of it. However we do not want to be any trouble to you.

5

6